Nominated for 1 Golden Globe. 2 more wins and 17 nominations. More on the awards: Edith Lucy and Edmund Pevensey are stuck in Cambridge, living in the house of their hideous cousin Eustaphy, while adults Susan and Peter live in the US with their parents. When a picture of a ship sailing on the sea of Narnia overflows the water in their room, Lucy, Edmund and Eustaphy are transported to the ocean of Narnia and rescued by the King of the Caspian Sea and the crew of The Dawn Treader. Caspian explains that Narnia was at peace for three years, but before he took his throne back, his uncle tried to kill the seven Lords of Telmar, who were the closest and most loyal friends of his father. They fled to Lonely Island and no one has ever heard of them. Now the Caspian is looking for the Lords of Telmar with his Captain Drinian, the talking mouse Reepicheep and his faithful people. Soon they discover that the evil form of green mist threatens Narnia and the brothers and sisters and their cousin join the Caspian in search to get the seven swords of the seven lords ... More When Susan writes Lucy and Edmund's letter, the camera pans on high quality, color photos of four siblings in uniform. Color photography is rarely used by professionals even 5 years after the end of World War II and would never match the modern clarity of photo props. Do you know more about the fact that you are an eighteen-year-old refugee reception officer? Edmund Peevesy: Why? Do I look older? More The German theatrical version was reduced by 76 seconds (primarily at the end of the fight) to provide a minimum 6 rating. This version was also released on DVD and 2D Blu-ray. However, the 3D Blu-ray release contains uncut versions - in 3D and 2D.
